ASTIGMATISM.

What It Is, and How Corrected.

Astigmatism or Irregular Vision is one of the most common of all the refractive errors. It is due to the irregular curvature of the eye known as the Cornea. Of course no instrument is sufficient to correct it, but in the hands of a thoroughly efficient and competent eye specialist the ophthalmometer reveals the exact condition of the eye in a way that nothing else can. If your eyes need attention have DR. J. T. JOHNSON to put them under this wonderful instrument. Office hours 8:30 to 12:30; 2 to 6. 302 1/2 S. Elm St.

OPENING GERMAN

At Blue Ridge Inn, Mt. Airy, Last Night.

Miss Walker Fry and Bernie Gilmer returned at noon today from Mt. Airy, where, last night, they attended the opening german at Blue Ridge Inn.

The german was a most delightful occasion, being led in a graceful and charming manner by B. H. Marsh, of Richmond, Va., assisted by Thos. L. Goff, of South Carolina.

The dancers were: B. H. Marsh, with Miss Neave, of Salisbury; H. G. Galloway, with Miss Bernhardt, of Salisbury; G. G. Galloway, with Miss Walker Fry, of Greensboro; C. D. Banner, with Miss Bledsoe, of Baltimore; J. F. Prather, with Miss Cora Quincey; R. G. Lamkin, with Miss Eva Quincey; F. P. Johns, with Miss Masie Moore; J. D. Williams, with Miss Fan Kyle, of Fayetteville; A. A. Armfield, with Miss Tucker, of Danville; George O. Graves, with Miss Belle Faucett; E. G. Handy, with Miss Nellie Prather; D. G. Hammond, with Miss Tunis; G. A. Joyce, with Miss May Kyle.

The ball-room was beautifully decorated; and dancing continued until 3 o'clock.

It is the intention of the genial proprietors of this hotel to give two germans each week during the season.

MR. HUNTER DALTON DEAD.

Passed in Baltimore Last Night—Funeral Tomorrow.

Mr. R. F. Dalton this morning received a telegram bearing the sad intelligence of the death of his brother, Mr. P. Hunter Dalton, which occurred in Baltimore last night. The news was a surprise to Mr. Dalton, and no particulars being given, he is at a loss to know the cause of his brother's death.

Mr. P. H. Dalton visited here less than a week ago and was in perfect health. It is supposed that he died suddenly, as his relatives here had not been apprized of his illness. He had many warm friends here who mourn with his relatives, his loss.

Mr. R. F. Dalton went to High Point this morning to make arrangements for the funeral there. The remains will pass through here tonight. The deceased was engaged in drug business in Danville. He was one of that city's most prominent and popular citizens and an eminently successful business man. He was 35 years old and unmarried.

THE CHAMPIONSHIP BELT.

The championship belt of the North Carolina State Firemen's Association, together with a handsome group picture of the New Berne Reel Team, the present champion hose racers, is on display in the south window of Will H. Matthews & Company's clothing store. The race for this belt will be one of the most hotly contested in the coming tournament. Nearly every reel team in the state is coming to win, while both the home teams will enter the contest with a vim. Take a look at the belt and the present fine looking holders.

Kaufmann's New Store.

A part of the Grissom building, occupied by the Fishlake-Katz Co., is being fitted up as a separate store room, and will be occupied by S. J. Kaufmann, the clever haberdasher and dealer in men's shoes. Mr. Kaufmann will have one of the prettiest stores in the state. Watch these columns for big ad announcing removal and putting in a mammoth line of new goods.

Officers Elected.

The following officers of Paisley Encampment No. 10 I. O. O. F., were elected last night for the ensuing term:

Chief—Patrick, W. L. Frazier; High Priest—T. L. McLean; Senior Warden—Dr. J. P. Turner; Junior Warden—Herman Buchanan; Recording Scribe—J. T. Rankin; Financial Scribe—L. C. Howlett; Treasurer—R. W. Murry.

Most Pleasant Evening.

The reception given by the Annie Patterson Missionary Society last night at the residence of Mr. C. Witherspoon, on Asheboro street, to the young people of Westminster Presbyterian Church, was attended by quite a large but select crowd. The lawn was very prettily decorated and lighted with Chinese lanterns. Sumptuous refreshments were served, and the evening passed most pleasantly.

Marriage at Winston.

Miss Lizzie Crawford, of Winston, is to be married next Wednesday evening to Rev. Mr. Herring, pastor of the Baptist church at Enfield, N. C.

Ladies are given a special invitation to call at Thacker & Brockmann's and look at a line of handsome lace curtains and tapestry portiers. They are also showing a good line of carpets, matings, art squares and rugs.

THE WATERS STILL RISING.

Boatmen Work Heroically Saving Refugees.

FULL THOUSAND AWAIT RESCUE

At Duke On a Half Dozen Mounds. "Another Day Of Rain Will Destroy the Country."

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Dallas, Texas, July 8.—A dispatch from Richmond reports the river an inch higher this morning. Twenty-one small boats are bringing in refugees. Eleven negroes are known to have been drowned thus far in Fort Bend county. Over six hundred negroes have been rescued and are now encamped about Richmond. They have sufficient supplies to last them for several days. Many were rescued in a very weakened condition and will die. Tugs from Galveston are working this morning in the vicinity of Duke where a full thousand refugees await rescue on a half dozen mounds not yet overflowed.

Chief line reporter Wyrick reported this morning: "One day more of rain will destroy this country. The immense bridge of the M. K. & T. is swaying and it's worth a man's life to venture on it. The river has stopped falling, but I fear new rains have brought in this morning from Sealy, Sunnyside and San Felipe. Some of them are almost naked, their clothing torn to shreds, and their limbs bruised by trees and other objects."

CABLE FROM OTIS.

He Wants Two Skeleton Regiments Made Of The New Recruits.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

WHEELER PREPARES TO LEAVE.

The Old War Horse Will Leave Sunday or Monday.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

The Columbia the Favorite.

Southampton, July 8.—The Shamrock was towed further down the harbor today in order that the fitting of the sails can go on under less close scrutiny. There is already considerable betting over the result of the races between the Shamrock and the Columbia. Some wagers of 6 to 1 against the Shamrock have been laid.

A Wisconsin Tornado.

Manawa, Wis., July 8.—A tornado passed over Union township last night. The wind blew furrows across the township six miles long and fifteen to forty rods wide. Practically everything in its path was destroyed. Many farm houses, barns and outbuildings and miles of fencing were wrecked. There was no loss of life, and nobody is reported injured.

A Long Shortage.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, July 8.—Examination of the accounts of the Metropolitan Club, as kept by Castor Egremant, Jr., who disappeared two weeks ago, shows a shortage larger than was supposed. Although the officers of the club made no official statement, it is believed his accounts are short about $20,000.

HIGH POINT, N. C., July 8.

J. D. Harrey has purchased the interest of S. E. Smith in the livery business of Harney & Smith and will continue the business at the old stand.

The Enterprise presented to its readers yesterday a double column picture of the confederate monument which was unveiled here July 4th. It shows up well.

The suit instituted by the Globe furniture by Dr. W. G. Bradshaw against section master Lassiter over a crowd bar, (the particulars of which have already been given) and which was dismissed at the plainiff's instance in the drawing up of the warrant, was re-issued by the plaintiff and the trial took place before Justice J. M. Sechrist last night, resulting in favor of the defendant for the second time.

And now a factory for the manufacture of baby carriages is being talked. Why not? It is an indispensable vehicle.

What is the matter with the apple crop this year? Only a few are to be found on the market and they are very "knotty" and far from wholesome. No peaches from the country can be secured at a price, the first crop seems to be a total failure.

Mr. R. J. Bell showed us two tomatoes that his wife cut off the vines yesterday and they were extra fine—weighing one pound each. Such fruit is worth raising.

Services at the M. E., Methodist Protestant and Presbyterian churches tomorrow at the usual hours.

The excellent reports of the condition of the National and Commercial National banks of High Point speak well for these "Gibraltar-like" institutions.

D. T. Marable & Co., insurance, real estate and bonding agents here, are doing business in Greensboro this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry E. White, who were married in this city Thursday night, will leave for Belvidere Monday where a reception will be tendered them by the groom's father. They will be at home in Union Springs, N. Y., after the 29th inst.

Mr. R. L. Pickett's new residence on Steele street is enclosed by a fence, the carpenters finishing work today.

A large crowd of young people attended a sociable at the home of Mr. W. H. Ragan last evening. Suffice it to say that all had a nice time. Delightful refreshments were served. At a proper hour the young folks departed for their respective homes, voting it a most enjoyable event.

The Peerless Machine Shops under the management of Messrs. W. D. Burgess and Samuel Coffin is the latest acquisition to our many manufacturing industries.

The raising of the "goose plum" by some of our country friends is becoming a paying business. They find a ready market for this kind of fruit in the north and hundreds of crates have been shipped in the last few days.

Rev. C. R. Taylor, a missionary to China, will preach at the Baptist church tomorrow morning and night. All are cordially invited to attend.

The remains of Mr. Hunter Dalton, who died suddenly in Baltimore yesterday evening, will arrive here tonight or Sunday morning. It is with the deepest regret that all his friends and acquaintances hear of his untimely death. He was the son of the late Rev. P. H. Dalton and brother to Frank Dalton, of Greensboro, and Will Dalton, and was at one time engaged in business here. His mother Mrs. P. H. Dalton, who lives at Mocksville, N. C., will come to High Point on tonight's train. He was a man of good qualities and loved by all who knew him. The funeral services will be conducted at the Presbyterian church by the pastor tomorrow morning at eleven o'clock. The sorrow stricken family and relatives have the sympathy of the entire community.

Attempted to Kill Mr. Williams.

A negro attempted to kill N. Glenn Williams, of Yadkin county, last Friday, and a glancing ball is all that saved him. It seems that Mr. Williams has certain forms of chastisement for his work hands when they do not please him, but this one drew a pistol and shot him in the forehead, but the ball glanced and little damage was done. The negro left.

THE YANKEE AT MANILA.

His Ingenuity Too Much For His Rivals.

CAN'T COMPETE WITH AMERICA.

Many of the Wealthy Tradesmen Suspend Their Business—Other News From Washington.

Special to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, July 8.—Consul John C. Covert, of Lyons, France, in a communication to the department of state, dated June 4th, has transmitted a dispatch containing a long list of enterprises which, according to the French consul at Manila, the Americans are establishing in the archipelago, and warns the French people that they must be left in the rear. The dispatch is translated briefly: "The appearance of Manila is destined to change in a short time. The introduction of a new and powerful factor in the commercial problem of this country will compel Spanish merchants to close their houses or to entirely change their business methods. American competition has commenced in fact to assume alarming proportions. What will be the importance of this current when these newcomers are free to direct the commercial destinies of the Philippines—to flood this market with all the products of their industries?"

"The English and German merchants, formerly masters in this colony, watch with keen interest the events now in progress and await with undisguised impatience the termination of the struggle between the Americans and the insurgents that they may discern the turn that things may take. No one, however, doubts that a strong rivalry is about to arise and they regret the past condition of affairs and the advantages they then enjoyed."

"Many of the wealthy people, mixed breeds and Indians have left for Hong kong or suspended business, and as their expenditures and style of living will be reduced in the future, the value of the market as an importing center will diminish. It will be more than ever necessary for the French merchants to study their interests in this market, not by depending on consular reports, but by sending commercial travelers here to investigate special lines of business. It is probable that under the enterprising and energetic methods of American business men, a new and richer market will soon be opened on these islands both in imports and exports."

A big barbecue and mass meeting will be held today at Scottsville, Virginia, the home of Senator Martin, which is expected to be largely attended by prominent Virginia democrats. It is understood that the barbecue is to inaugurate a movement to build a bridge across the James river at Scottsville, connecting the counties of Albemarle and Buckingham.

Several prominent Virginia speakers will be in attendance, the list including Senator Martin, State Senator H. D. Flood, Hon. John M. Moon, Judge John R. Moss, E. W. Hubbard, and others.

Miss Jennie M. Edwards, and Miss Ella Lee, of the faculty of the female college at Due West, South Carolina, have been in the city for a few days on their way to Chautauque, New York, where they will spend a portion of their summer vacation. Miss Lee is teacher of botany, and Miss Edwards has charge of voice culture and vocal music. Miss Edwards is reputed to be one of the finest psalm singers in the southern states, and her voice is always in demand for anthems and solos on occasions when a special programme is to be arranged, as for ceremonies in church dedications, etc. The two young ladies leave Washington city for the east today. While here they are stopping at the Metropolitan hotel.

The post office department has discontinued inner registered sacks exchange, between Salem and Greensboro, North Carolina, to take effect on and after July 10th.

Miss M. E. Smith, of Durham, North Carolina, is in the city for a few days. While in Washington she is stopping at the St. James hotel.

Mr. H. H. Smith, of Asheville, North Carolina, is also at the St. James hotel. Mr. Smith is here on personal business, and will remain for several days.

Star service change has been ordered between Pennington and Palmersville, from July 11th, reduce service to three times per week. Schedule to be Tuesday, and Saturday. Same hours as at present.

Attention, Firemen!

A regular meeting of the fire department will be held in firemen's hall on Tuesday night, 11th inst., at 8:15 o'clock. Let every member arrange to be present. Only a few more days in which to get ready for the tournament. By order of

J. Henry Phipps, Chief.

AN IMPORTANT QUESTION.

Should a Woman Marry a Man Expecting to Reform Him?

Correspondence Telegram.

Should a woman marry a man given to drink with the hope of reforming him after marriage? If not, why not? This is a question that deserves more than a casual glance for many a heart has struggled to solve it. And we find still a division of opinion. Some have given the young man the negative and seek thus blighted in his hopes he seeks to find a surcease of his disappointment in giving himself over to drink entirely. While others have taken upon themselves the marriage vows with the hope of being able to induce him to forsake the ruinous habit, and have lived, alas, to suffer untold miseries as a consequence.

In the very commencement of the use of intoxicants lies a danger as pernicious in its influence and as calamitous in its results as it is possible for anything to be. All are too well acquainted with the sufferings and miseries entailed by that habit to need any description. All know to what indignities and insults the wife is subjected, not counting the thousands of heart aches endured by her. We, too, have seen how difficult the habit of drink is to break, how it clings to one and how few are able or at least are manly enough to break it galling chains. Then does any woman wish to experience such?

Are any so foolish as to cheerish the hope that he will give up the soul-destroying cup after he has her in his power when he is unwilling to relinquish it before the ceremony?

Love is the world's conqueror and the great ruling force in the universe, and what it cannot accomplish is well nigh impossible. But we will see its influence to the extent of leaving off the sparkling glass, of forsaking forever the saloon. Before entrusting our happiness, our life to one, let it so change his nature that the demon in the form of an appetite for strong drink has been driven out forever before the ceremony. As well might a woman cast herself upon the track in front of a lightning express with the delusive hope that the hand of Providence will be stretched out to save her, as to marry a man who frequents the saloon, with the idea of a happy home or effecting a reformation in him. She would be but chasing a phantom which is leading her always on into the quagmires of sorrow and woe.

We are warned by the inspired writer not to be unequally yoked, and I cannot think of a more unequally yoked pair than a temperate woman and an intemperate man journeying along life's highway together. Young woman I beseech you not to commit your happiness, your life to him whose breath has the faintest taint of alcohol in any form whatever. Think of all you will undergo before making the fatal error. I would here add one word to the youth to shun the cup; never, oh! never touch it. Beware of the first sip of the nectar, for in it lies a poison more terrible in its influence and effects than the bite of a rattlesnake.

Oh, God of a mighty nation, When shall the glad day be That the liquor reign is ended, And our land is truly free; When all men may wander Throughout its length and breadth, With never a serpent lurking, To stay them in their strength.

—M. May Norris.

A Crazy Guest.

Chief of Police Scott, City Clerk Michaux, Col. Staples and Capt. Fisher who have offices in the plastered building on North Elm street, were yesterday the unwilling hosts of a crazy man. He remained around the building all day yesterday, asking foolish questions, laughing at silly things and altogether making himself at home with his unknown friends. He moved his headquarters last evening to the Planters Hotel, from which place Officer Scott soon made him depart. The chief has heard nothing from him since.

MARION BUTLER'S SEAT.

No man contributed more physical and mental energy toward the de-thronement of republicanism in North Carolina than Hon. R. B. Glenn, of Winston. He gave up his lucrative law practice, surrendered almost every interest, rolled up his sleeves and went into the fight with all his determination, and it was largely through his aid and a few others' ceaseless war made upon the foes of white supremacy that the enemy was vanquished. Yet we are very glad to see Mr. Glenn's emphatic denial of the report that he would be a candidate for Marion Butler's seat in the United States senate. This seat belongs to the people of eastern North Carolina who have borne the brunt of the battle—who have felt in all its bitterness the sting of negroism and carpet-bag government, and it would be most unfair if any westerner should set himself up as a candidate for the place. We hope it will be given Hon. C. B. Aycock, who did noble work in the campaign.

Yet there is none—no, not one—who could grace a North Carolina desk in the United States senate with more natural fines and ability than Bob Glenn.

THE ROAD MEETING.

How many of our citizens are going to attend the road builders' institute in Charlotte next week? Nobody who has any love for the welfare of his city or county, can afford to miss this most important dispensation of information and advice looking to the better equipment and maintenance of our public highways. One day, Thursday, will be devoted to the consideration of streets and sidewalks, and this should certainly be sufficient incentive to induce a good attendance from our city. We truly hope that those who feel an interest in this great subject—and everybody should feel an interest in it—will arrange to attend. The time is arriving when the city or county that has out-of-date streets and turnpikes is reckoned as being far behind "the procession."

That little village in Rockingham county on the Dan, called Mayodan, will most probably be a great manufacturing town at some future day. Its water power is immense, and nature has bestowed upon it many other natural advantages. Already there are several important industries there, and we notice a dispatch this morning stating that a company has been formed at Winston composed of wealthy capitalists which will at once build a $500,000 cotton mill at Mayodan. The directors chosen are all rich stockholders: F. H. Fries, B. N. Duke, R. J. Reynolds, and W. C. Ruffin. Work has already been commenced on the enterprise.

The death of Robert Bonner, publisher of the New York Ledger, recalls another case of "working his way up." Mr. Bonner started at the humble occupation of printer's devil, and attained unto fame and fortune.

Rose Coghlan was bitten by a kissing bug the other day. Of course the assuatory insect had no idea that she came of a much talking breed, or he wouldn't have caused her lips to swell.

It is reported from Washington that Secretary Gage thinks that Secretary Alger ought to resign. Mr. Gage's opinion is preposterous!

W. M. Gallagher, of Bryan, Pa., says: "For forty years I have tried various cough medicines. One Minute Cough Cure is best of all." It relieves instantly and cures all throat and lung troubles, coughs, colds, croup, whooping-cough, la grippe and pneumonia. Howard Gardner.

THE IMPORTANCE OF READING.

Another Most Interesting Letter From Rev. J. C. Troy.

Correspondence Telegram.

"Give attendance to reading." 1st Tim. 4:3. That Paul was a well turned man and capable of advising, no one doubts. He was anxious that Timothy should be a full man, and to that end he gives advice of sound character.

He writes to him and urges him to be an example to the believers, "in word, in conversation, in charity, in faith, in purity." And then the advice of the text as to reading. The importance of carrying out this advice is not to be overestimated. Men and women who do not read are not able to keep up with the procession. Necessarily, they must stand aside. You hear people talk and after all their talk you get nothing from what they have said. Now can a mill make meal when there is no corn in the hopper? Folks who are not given to reading will display more intelligence by keeping a still tongue. It is out of the question for one to either write or speak intelligently, who is not given to the exercise of reading. It is food for the mind, just as bread and meat is to the body. When we read good books we lay by in store matter for thought. And this matter being pure, lovely, and of good report, our conversation and writing must, necessarily, be of a similar type. This being true, we ask:

What shall we read? Well, the world is full of reading matter: good, bad, and indifferent. In making many books there is no end, and much study is a weariness of the flesh; but, notwithstanding this last statement, we must read, and the most important book calling for attention is the Bible. It is an education, or rather a library, in itself. It is full of every class of literature—history, poetry, biography, and the higher criticism say, a considerable sprinkling of fiction. No novelist has yet written more beautiful or thrilling stories than those of Ruth and Esther. It is surprising that thousands of the fair sex always on the alert for the latest novel have no idea of those two books. The book of Esther is especially interesting. The plot is fine. The practical lessons invaluable. The denouement of the story just what every reader would have it. Evil purposes are overthrown and justice falls on the actor in the villain's role. God's name does not appear one time in the story—this is remarkable—but God's hand is plainly seen as it overturns the evil and establishes righteousness. But of all the books in the old Bible, none surpasses Job in interest, doctrine and good sense generally. But this article would grow too lengthy if we were to attempt to call the names of the specially interesting parts. The entire book is good. But when you read it, if you would get the greatest benefit, two points should be in mind. First, it should be read and studied with the mind—interestingly; second, with the heart—devotionally. The neglect of the first condition is why many readers fail to find the good they expected from reading the scriptures. The man who isn't fond of reading the Bible; of its history, biography, poetry, proverbs, discourses, letters, etc., will not get any more good out of it than he would from a newspaper that he has no interest in. If he reads the latter it will do him no good if he reads without having on his thinking cap. I am sorry to say that in these days you will find people who have more Bible under their arms than in their heads. It is quite fashionable now to put a Bible under your arm and go to Sunday School. The idea is, get it in your hand and then live it in your life. To do this, you must read intelligently, and also devotionally. This reading should be undertaken with earnest prayer, or intense desire to be guided by the Holy Spirit, by whom the book was originally inspired. Let your prayer be all the time, "Open thou mine eyes that I may behold the wondrous things out of Thy law." Read the Bible first. A few verses read daily, with devotion and understanding, will give sufficient spiritual food for the day. After the Bible, comes the newspaper. Read your church journal. Then read a religious paper. I do not mean that your church organ is not religious, but we know it is cut a little bias, and it will be a good idea for you to have a paper with decided religious tone. Not belonging in any sense to ecclesiasticism, added to your church organ. Then comes the secular paper. The Observer, Citizen, and Telegram are all good; and there are others. But have nothing more to do with yellow journalism than you would with the devil. Don't let trash of this kind get into your house. Touch not the unclean thing. Have nothing to do with trash. Read elevating fiction, history and any choice literature that you are able to buy or borrow; but, be sure you return the latter. Have at least one monthly periodical; more if possible. Give as much attention to this part of life's duty as you give, or ought to give to the quality of food that you put in your stomach. It is impossible for us to be pure in mind and heart if these organs are not filled with the best thought. And this best thought can only be produced by the absorption of pure literature. It is impossible to talk unless we have something to say. Therefore, if we would be a blessing to others and a pleasure to ourselves we must read. And this leads us to observe in conclusion, what we started out to say, that you are almost a nobody if you fail to "give attendance to reading." Gossip is silly in the extreme, but you know this is the only thing you can talk if your head is empty. It is, therefore, your duty, religiously and socially, to fill up. There is no excuse for so much vacuity in talk and facial expression when the world is, as now, so full of God's word and other good reading matter. Give attendance to this and note the results. J. C. Troy.

Outrage to be Investigated.

Washington, July 6.—The State Department today took action in the case of F. P. Richards, of Louisville, who claims to have been robbed of his rights and treated with indignity by the government of Guatemala. Minister Hunter has been directed to make prompt investigation. Outrages against Americans have been frequent in Central America lately, and the government is determined to put an end to it.

"Well, how does married life strike you?" "I haven't been struck yet, but my wife has done 'most everything else."

What is Kodol Dyspepsia Cure? It is the newly discovered remedy, the most effective preparation ever devised for aiding the digestion and assimilation of food, and restoring the deranged digestive organs to a natural condition. It is a discovery surpassing anything yet known to the medical profession. Howard Gardner.

No Cure—No Pay.

That is the way all druggists sell Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic for Chills and Malaria. It is simply iron and quinine in a tasteless form. Children love it. Adults prefer it to bitter, nauseating tonics. Price, 50c.

It's funny that we should speak of a man as "out of breath" when it's really out of him.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.

The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns, and all skin eruptions, and positively cures piles or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by C. E. Holton.

A color is called fast when it won't run. Queer, isn't it?

The Sapphire Country.

Along the cool southern slopes and table lands of the Blue Ridge mountains in Western North Carolina, at an average altitude of 3,000 feet, is a country full of delightful surprises to the tourist, sportsman and health-seeker. No other state contains so many clear, cold and wonderfully picturesque streams, so many grand water falls, such wide sweeping mountain views, and such beautiful lakes as the Sapphire Country, where until recently there was no provision made for the accommodation of visitors to this delightful section. Now, however, entertainment is offered on Lake Sapphire, Lake Fairfield, and on the summit of Mt. Toleway, the view from the lodge there being the most extensive of any mountain point of vantage in North Carolina.

Parties desiring to visit this beautiful country can purchase round trip tickets to Brevard, N. C., via Hendersonville, where coaches convey you over good roads making the drive one of extreme pleasure. For full information call on any agent Southern Railway, or write R. L. Vernon, traveling passenger agent, Charlotte, N. C., or W. A. Turk, general passenger agent, Washington, D. C.

When Calling on Your Sweetheart

Be sure that your linen is well laundered. A man can look very "shoddy" and "cheap John" with yellow edges to his collars and cuffs and his shirt bosom yellow and dingy. Our work has a clear, white, even color. We do not claim to be the best, but we claim to be as good as any, and we challenge comparison with any laundry anywhere.

A Narrow Escape.

Thankful words written by Mrs. Ada E. Hart, of Orono, S. D. "Was taken with a bad cold which settled on my lungs; cough set in and finally terminated in consumption. Four doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Saviour, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and colds. I gave it a trial, took in all eight bottles. It has cured me, and thank God I am saved and now a well and healthy woman. Trial bottles free at C. E. Holton's drug store. Regular size 50c and $1.00. Guaranteed or price refunded.

The poor dog is now getting its summer pants on.

An Epidemic of Diarrhoea.

Mr. A. Saunders, writing from Coconut Grove, Fla., says there has been quite an epidemic of diarrhoea there. He had a severe attack and was cured by four doses of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. He says he also recommended it to others and they say it is the best medicine they ever used. For sale by C. E. Holton, druggist.

Willie—"Pa, did Adam and Eve kick much when they wuz 'run out of the garden?" "Pa—"Well, no; not just then, but they raised Calu afterward. Now go to bed."

General Manager Frank S. Gannon, of the Southern Railway, passed here today in his private car attached to number 36. He was returning to Washington from a trip south. Superintendent O'Brien boarded the car here.

Insurance company's loss is your gain. Kaufmann's entire stock of shoes, men's furnishing goods, hats and trunks are being sacrificed at Shrier's shoe store. Nothing is held in reserve. Everything must be sold, so call early and get the pick of this elegant new stock.

Bendheim & Sons say they like to break prices on the goods you want and need—give you extraordinary values on things that are new and necessary. So you'll find items in their ad today that in every way carry out this idea. Read it, go and see them, and profit by it.

The Pied Piper company will begin work next week on the opera, the first rehearsal being held at the Academy of Music Monday night at 8:30. The company will be a strong one, composed of Greensboro's best singers, and under the direction of the author of the piece presented will no doubt give a very strong performance.

Forty building lots located on West Lee street near the residence of Mrs. Lampman, (a part of the Jackson property) is advertised by Southern Loan and Trust Co., to be sold in single lots or as purchaser desires. This is an opportunity to secure a cheap lot near both school and business. See ad on first page of this issue.

Clarence O. Sherill, a cadet at West Point, passed through the city today en route to Raleigh to visit his father, State Librarian Sherill. He will return to Greensboro next week to visit his sister, Mrs. S. L. Alderman, before his furlough expires. Dr. and Mrs. J. D. Sherill, of Louisville, Ky., also passed through going to Raleigh to visit Dr. Sherill's parents.

J. M. Walker left at noon today for Bedford Alumn Springs, Va., to remain until his health is sufficiently improved to allow him to resume his work at the City National Bank. Since his return from Connelly Springs Mr. Walker has been confined to his home, having contracted a slight case of fever while there. His many friends hope soon to see him back.

A Big Contract.

W. C. Bain, of this city, has been awarded the contract for the erection of the big hotel at Pinehurst, N. C., for James W. Tufts, of Boston. The building is to be modern throughout and when completed will have cost about $125,000. E. E. Bain, lumber dealer of this place, will furnish the lumber for the structure, about one and a half million feet of which will be required. Some idea of the quantity of lumber necessary may be gathered from the fact that it will be about 130 car loads. The hotel will contain about 350 rooms. We congratulate our townsmen on securing the contract for furnishing the material and building the structure.

Men who want to keep cool these hot days should get fitted out with some of our light weight Balbriggan Summer Underwear. Shirts and Drawers, all sizes, 25, 35, and 50 cents each, and you'll be surprised to find how good they are for such small prices. Thacker & Brockmann.
